Marvelous
are Your works,
and that my soul
knows very well.

The Bible - Psalm 139:14b

January

Isn't nature wonderful? God shows through it that He can do anything and has thought of everything. How foolish to believe that all of creation came about by itself.

God created the bears - and you and me. You can trust Him to help you and to take care of everything in your life. He loves you!

Oh no, the little mouse is in danger!
It has to hide quickly, or the cat will catch it.

Have you ever hidden because you did something wrong and were afraid of being found out? God is calling you. Unlike the cat, He doesn't want to harm you but to forgive you. Tell Him honestly that you are sorry, and you won't need to hide anymore.

Then the LORD God called to Adam and said to him,
“Where are you?”

Blessed is he whose transgression
is forgiven, whose sin
is covered.

The Bible - Psalm 32:1

The painter only covers the spots on the wall with new paint. But when God forgives, the stains of sin are truly gone. The stains inside you appear, for example, when you steal, lie, or say hurtful words to someone.

If you believe in Jesus Christ and confess your sins to Him, you will be washed clean, and not a single stain will remain.

He who has ears to hear,
let him hear!

The Bible - Matthew 11:15

The big rabbit is telling the smaller one something important. It's good that the little rabbit is listening carefully. God wants to tell you something too, because He loves you very much. He even wrote you a letter! That's the Bible. Read it, or have someone read it to you, to hear what God wants to tell you about Himself and about you.

Give attention to my words.

The Bible - Proverbs 4:20a

June

The Bible is God's Word and gives you support for your life with Jesus Christ. God's Word doesn't change; it's just as true today as it was many, many years ago when it was written. God has an answer to every question. Read the Bible and remember God's words well.

Come,
and let us
return to the LORD.

The Bible - Hosea 6:1a

God is waiting for us with open arms. He wants us to come to Him. That's why He has done everything to make it possible. His Son, Jesus Christ, took the punishment for our wrong thoughts and actions when He died on the cross. Through this, God invites you today to come to Him. Accept His invitation!

Have you ever argued, lied, or been disobedient? We all do these things because we are like sheep that run away from God. God must punish what is wrong, but His Son, Jesus Christ, came to earth and was punished on the cross for our wrongdoings.

If you pray to Him, honestly confess your mistakes, and trust Him with all your heart, He will forgive you and lead you on a good path.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned,
every one, to his own way.

Your eyes are too pure
to look at evil.

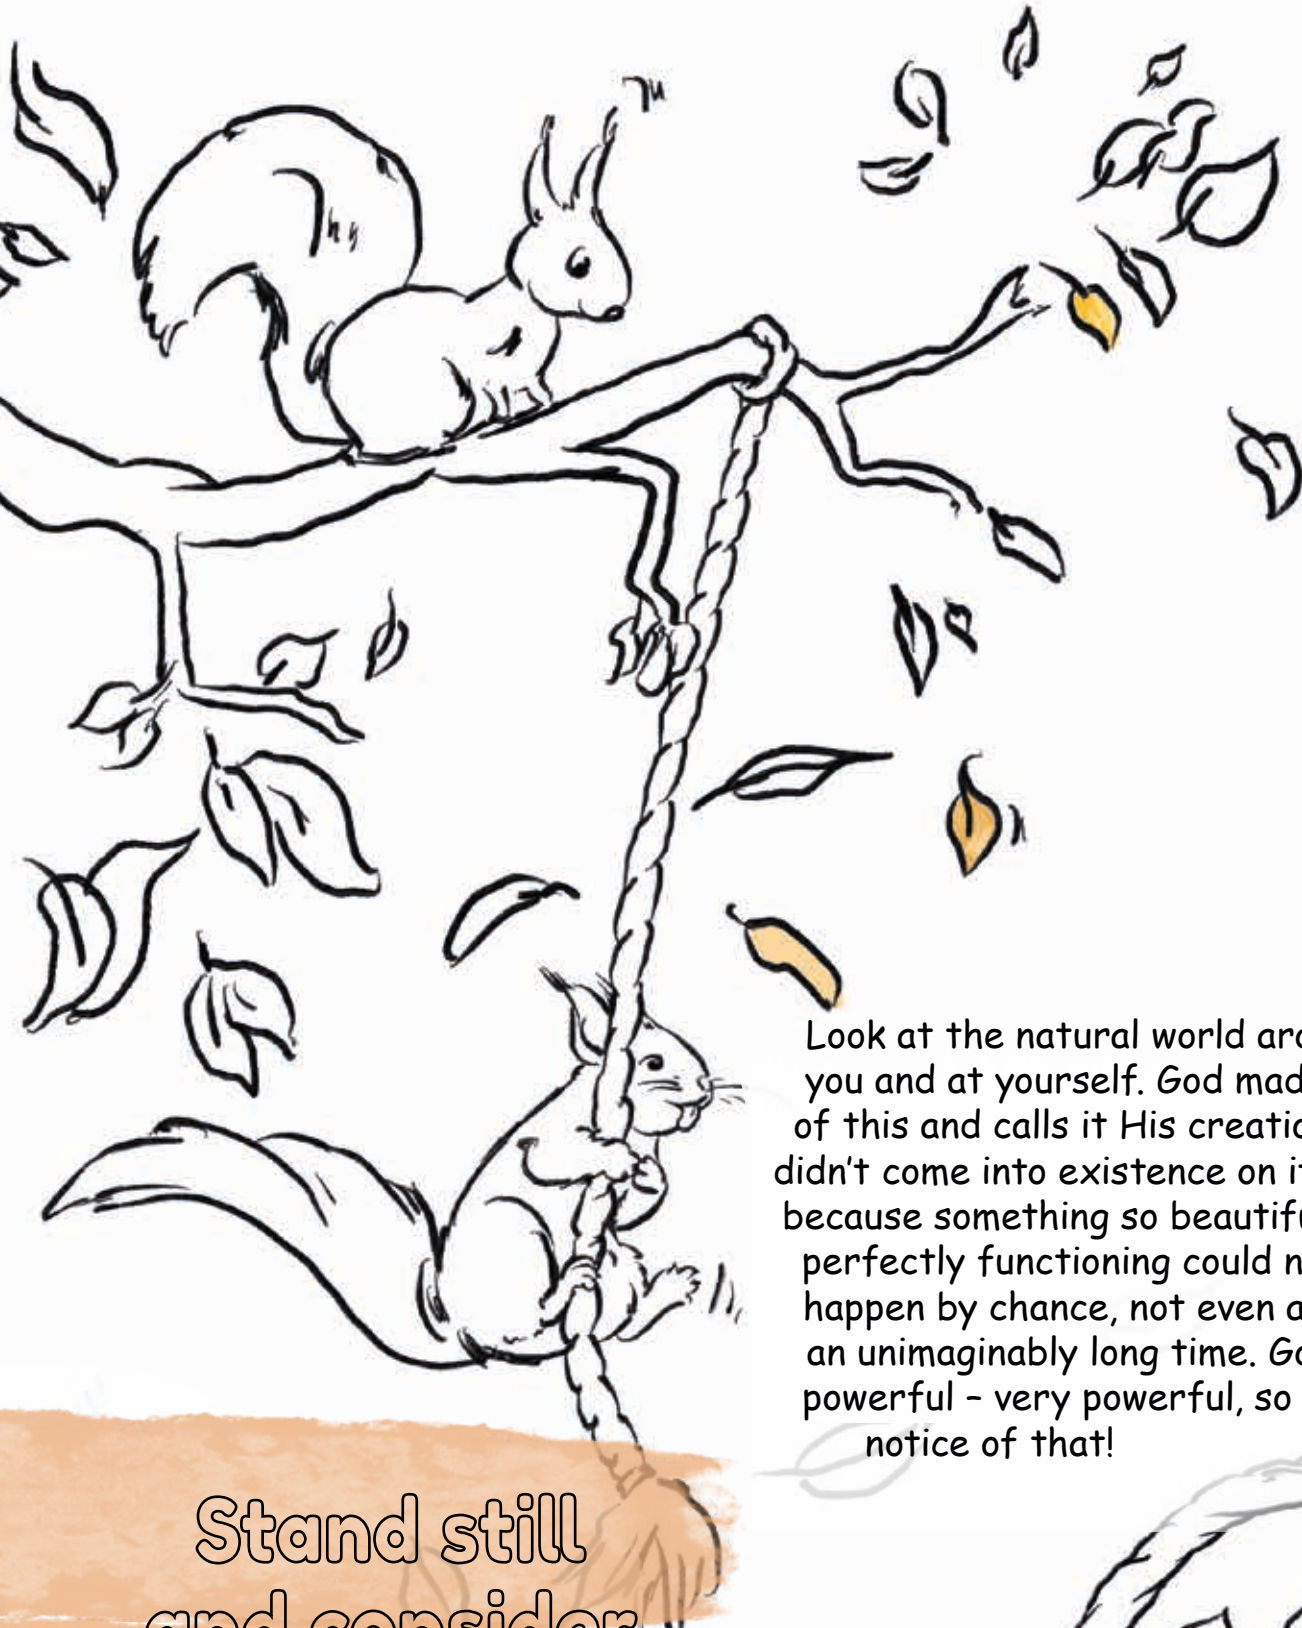

The Bible - Habakkuk 1:13a (NASB)

This verse is about God. Unfortunately, we sometimes do wrong things, like lying or being disobedient, because our hearts are not pure. That's why we are separated from God. But God loves you and me very much and wants us to be clean. We can't do it on our own. Read the last page of the calendar - it tells you how God built a bridge so we can come to Him.

October

Look at the natural world around you and at yourself. God made all of this and calls it His creation. It didn't come into existence on its own because something so beautiful and perfectly functioning could never happen by chance, not even after an unimaginably long time. God is powerful - very powerful, so take notice of that!

Stand still and consider the wondrous works of God.

This sentence from God's Word, the Bible, is a beautiful promise. We have all thought and done many things that God calls "wrong". But God has promised to forgive us for everything if we confess it. You can always come to Him again, and you can never do so much wrong that God will not forgive you.

A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.

The Bible - Proverbs 15:1

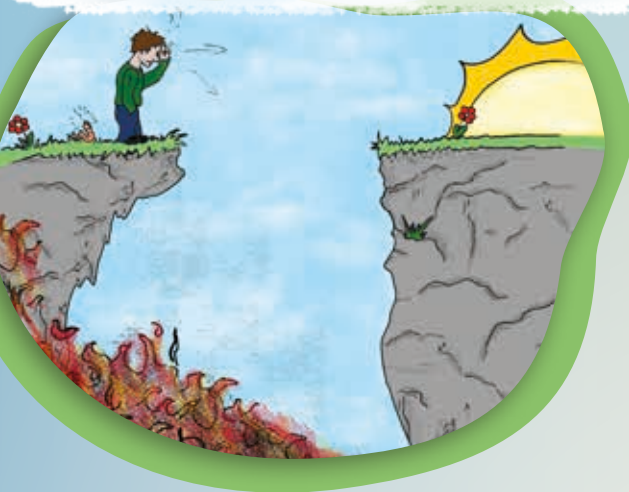

An accident can happen so quickly.
No one meant any harm, but now there's a big problem. How do you react when someone accidentally harms you? Do you blame the other person and get angry, or do you try to understand and forgive them?

Just as Jesus wants to forgive you, you can also forgive others.

SEPARATED FROM GOD?

Your iniquities have separated you from your God.
The Bible - Isaiah 59:2

God is good - there is nothing bad or evil in Him. We on the other hand use bad words, get jealous, are disobedient or treat others badly. God calls all these things sin.

Sin caused a breakdown, a separation from God. The way we are does not suit God. Sin has made a huge gap between you and God - just like in the picture.

We can't cross this "gap of sin" ourselves.
What then? Isn't there anybody who can overcome this gap?
Is there no bridge between us and God? Yes, there is!

God Himself built a bridge for us because He loves us.
Out of love, He sent His only Son - Jesus Christ -
to become this bridge to God.

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son.
The Bible - John 3:16

Jesus Christ says: I am the way ...
No one comes to the Father except through Me.
The Bible - John 14:6

Jesus Christ suffered from God for the sins of everyone who believes. This is how He became the way to God. This is the way you need to go in order to pass over the gap.

How does this work? Believe that the Lord Jesus died for your sins on the cross. Tell Him your sins and tell Him that you are sorry. Ask the Lord Jesus to forgive your sins. Then He will save you and so become for you the way across this bridge to God.

Jesus is waiting for you and will rejoice greatly
if you come to Him.

If we confess our sins,
He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins
and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
The Bible - 1 John 1:9

As soon as you have done this, you will have crossed the bridge, and God will receive you. Then you will be able to speak to Him at any time; you'll be saved and you'll know that everything is good between God and you!
